Announcement of Winners of Short Film Competition on Netaji's dreams for India

13th April, 2021: Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, along with National Film Development Corporation (NFDC) had organised an online short film competition on the occasion of Parakram Diwas - marking the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose.

The competition went live on 23rd January 2021 on the MyGov portal.

The competition invited short films of up to 3 minutes from citizens of India on the theme of 'Netaji ke sapne. Udaan India ki!' – encapsulating Netaji's dreams for India.

The competition received 1346 responses on MyGov portal - of which there were 297 entries and 51 were found to be eligible as per the T&C of the competition. The competition received participation from every State and every Union Territory. Highest participation has been received from NCT Delhi followed by Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan. Highest contribution has been received from below 18 age group indicating that participants are mostly youngsters.

A committee comprising of Jury members associated with competitions like IFFI and MIFF, arrived at the top winners after careful evaluation of each entry.

The top winners in both categories, will be awarded with certificates and prize money as per the terms and conditions of the competition.
